L.R. WHEATLEY

Attorney at Law

Word of Life. . .

In the present situation of our nation, a serious question has arisen about the moral obligation of Catholics to work for the overturning of the Supreme Court decisions in Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton. There are those who would tell us that such work is futile and, therefore, to be abandoned, so that we can devote ourselves to help prevent individuals from choosing abortion. As Catholics, we can never cease to work for the correction of gravely unjust laws. Law is the fundamental expression of our culture and implicitly teaches citizens what is morally acceptable. Our efforts to assist those who are tempted to do what is always and everywhere wrong or are suffering from the effects of having committed a gravely immoral act. . . ultimately make little sense, if we remain idle regarding unjust laws and decisions of courts regarding the same intrinsic evils. We are never justified in abandoning the work of changing legislation and of reversing decisions of the courts which are anti-life and anti-family.

—Most Rev. Raymond L. Burke, Prefect of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura, Address to the National Catholic Prayer Breakfast, May 8, 2009

Intercessions for Life. .

For those who have terminal illness: That their families and caretakers will affirm their God-given dignity by their gentleness and compassion; We pray to the Lord.

Birthline Ministries. . .

Birthline is an outreach service of the Archdiocesan Office for Pro-Life Ministry. Birthline volunteers assist women and babies living in poverty through direct material assistance at the Catholic Center, 1400 N. Meridian St., or by answering the hotline from their homes. We are in need of both types of volunteers. There is an urgent need for two telephone volunteers who can answer the hotline from their homes. We need volunteers for the second and fourth Mondays and the second and fourth Fridays, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Training will be provided for the hotline ministry. If you are interested in becoming a Birthline volunteer, please contact Sister Diane at 317-236-1521.
