Come learn an easy way to shake the dust off your Bible and unpack the riches of the "greatest story ever told." The Office of Catholic Education is hosting this one day event, The Great Adventure Bible Timeline Seminar, at Our Lady of Greenwood Parish on Saturday, March 28, 2009 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Presenter, Tom Smith, will guide you through the major people, places, events and themes of the Bible—casting the "big picture" of salvation history. This seminar is open to all adults, and will be especially beneficial to catechists, teachers and small group leaders. The cost to attend is $45 (includes materials and lunch). For more information and to register, contact Theresa Brydon, Office of Catholic Education, 236-1431 or 800-382-9836 ext 1431 or tbrydon@archindy.org.

Save March 31st at 7:30 pm for an evening with Michael Perigo at MQP. Michael is a well known and respected authority on icons, who speaks with obvious pleasure on this subject. Michael was at Mary, Queen of Peace several years ago and gave an outstanding presentation and will undoubtedly do so again.

Come listen, enjoy, learn!

Reach Out to Former Catholics. . .

If you have a Catholic family member or friend who no longer practices the faith, but has expressed interest in returning to the Church, direct them to the web site catholicscomehome.org. This site is designed to answer any questions or concerns they may have about returning to the Church. It is a way to encourage and help the person to "come home" to the faith.
